Story Of Dry

AURORA, Ill., March 27.—Out of the maze of statements about the "death-for-a-gallon" slaying of Mrs. Lillian De King by dry raiders, emerged today two distinct versions—that she was killed by Deputy Sheriff Roy Smith in self-defense and that she was murdered in a fanatical effort to enforce prohibition in a district where the law is regarded lightly.

Carbary was elected on a reform platform and at once started raiding and obtaining convictions. Investigation into the killing of Mrs. De King was at a stand still today with the coroner's inquest postponed indefinitely pending further investigation.

Meanwhile, Gerald, 12-year-old son of the De Kings, was at the home of his uncle, Peter De King, who was in the De King home when the raiders stormed it Monday night, killing Mrs. De King, and clubbing her husband, Joseph, with the butt of a shotgun.

Gerald, who shot Smith in the leg when he saw his mother killed, re-enacted the slaying yesterday for the coroner's jury of business men, placing the blame for the slaying directly on Smith.

The deputy sheriff, in a hospital as a result of being wounded, also made a statement late yesterday, the first since the killing.

He said Mrs. De King seized a gun from her husband and pointed it at him. He said he fired at her as he backed away.

Peter De King was emphatic in saying that Smith shot Mrs. De King without provocation.

Joseph De King, still dazed by the blow from Smith's shotgun, was free, making arrangements for his wife's funeral.

Both versions had their adherents, State's Attorney George Carbary saying "I am satisfied Smith shot the woman in self defense."

Known as "dripping wet, Aurora was aroused by the raid and slaying, branding it as "death-for-a-gallon" killed in contrast to Michigan's "life-for-a-pint" law. A gallon of wine was all the liquor found in the De King home by the raiders.

Milroy said he had determined that no warrant was made out on the name of the De Kings; that it had not been shown to the De King by the raiders and that De King never had been convicted of violating the dry law.

Milroy also said Ole Nelson, a deputy sheriff, was drinking wine in the De King home when Smith and his raiders broke in.

Carbary, since he was indicted into office last December, has been moving vigorously against dry law violators. His predecessor had announced publicly that sentiment in Aurora was against the dry laws and for that reason he saw no reason to enforce them rigidly.

KING OFFICIATES AT FIRST CEREMONY

BOGNOR, Sussex, England, March 27.—King George officiated at a ceremony today as the monarch of Great Britain for the first time since his illness began.

The king granted an audience in Craigwell House to Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin who formally presented the new archbishops of Canterbury and York, who paid homage and swore allegiance to the king.

It was the first time since his illness began that the king had conferred with the prime minister. The two chatted together for several minutes before the ceremony.

It is believed they discussed briefly the dates for the dissolution of parliament and the general elections.

FARM ORGANIZATIONS AGREE TO SUPPORT FARM RELIEF MEASURE

SHOOTS DRY AGENT WHO KILLED MOTHER

Terrorized when his mother was shot to death at Aurora, Ill., Gerald De King, 9, above, seized a gun and retaliated by shooting Deputy Sheriff Roy Smith, leader of the raiding party, in the leg. Below is a view of the De King filling station and home at Aurora, where the raid took place. Smith declared he shot Mrs. De King when she reached behind a telephone stand as if for a gun. The deputy and his raiders armed with a search warrant, had been refused admittance to the house.

While these developments were occurring on the senate side of the capitol, the house agriculture committee held its first session, planning to work parallel to the senate committee, now in the third day of hearings. The house committee may appoint a sub-committee to find out from Mr. Hoover officially what sort of legislation he desires. Although he has been silent, the senate committee has been working on the theory he favors the McNary bill.

The farm organizations came to agreement in a voluntary agreement conference late yesterday. First five smaller organizations agreed the old equalization fee principle is legislatively dead and it would be sensible to take a new tack.

They agreed the new bill should embody the following principles: Intermediate credit banks under a special board of the treasury department rather than under the federal farm loan board; a $300,000,000 federal revolving fund for loans to co-operatives; creation of an acceptance corporation for agricultural loans, and reduction of the minimum time limit on commodity loans.

Later this agreement was ratified by the larger farm organization leaders such as the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Farmers Union, with the single exception of the point about the size of the revolving fund. Before the agreement becomes official the questions will have to be submitted to members of the organizations, but its practical effect will be immediately felt.

Congressional authorities indicated the desired changes will be made in the bill before it is submitted to the senate and they claim the agreement will kill most of the opposition to the measure.

Flyers Miss Record By 380 Miles; Fuel Exhausted

BAHIA, Brazil, March 27.—Two exhausted Spanish aviators who landed at Camassary Aerodrome here yesterday morning after a trans-Atlantic flight from Spain, slept late today before preparing to continue to Rio de Janeiro at daybreak Thursday.

Capt. Francisco Iglesias and Capt. Ignacio Jimenez missed a new world's distance flight record by about 380 miles, according to their figures which checked with calculations made by Brazilian aviation officials. The flyers covered approximately 4,067 miles, in almost a straight line of flight from Seville, down the African coast, across the South Atlantic and to Bahia, via Natal.

Captain Iglesias described their flight to the United Press correspondent, praising the single motor airplane Jesus De San Poder, which he said could easily have continued on to Rio de Janeiro but for lack of fuel. Captain Jimenez was suffering from an attack of urticaria (nettle rash) and his illness was partly responsible for their decision to land at Bahia rather than continue until the fuel gave completely out.

SENATE COMMITTEE REQUESTS LEADERS TO ASSIST DETAILS

Fee-Less Bill Said To Be
What President Hoover
Wants

WASHINGTON, March 27.—A substantial agreement among farm organizations to drop their differences and join hands for the feeless McNary bill, said to be "what President Hoover wants," was reported to the senate agriculture committee today by farm leaders.

The move to establish a solid phalanx for the measure came as Chairman McNary of the committee was sending out telegrams inviting the most prominent leaders in the American industrial world to appear and lend their experience to the committee in working out details of the new bill.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was added to the list which included Henry Ford, Secretary of Treasury Mellon, Owen Young, J. P. Morgan, Paul Warburg and Charles M. Schwab. While Young and Morgan are in Europe and some of the others are expected to decline, committee members felt an effort should be made to get their advice.

While these developments were occurring on the senate side of the capitol, the house agriculture committee held its first session, planning to work parallel to the senate committee, now in the third day of hearings. APPROVE DISTRICT
COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The Supreme Court today upheld the constitutionality of the Mahoning Valley sanitary district. The court found that the creation of the district does not violate the constitution with reference to home rule or the delegation of legislative authority.

COMMITTEE FAVORS BILL TO TAX
RETAILERS; AIMED AT CHAINS

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The house taxation committee today prepared to report to the house for passage the Sharp bill placing a license tax on retail stores.

The measure, according to its opponents, is aimed at "chain stores."

The committee, last night, voted 13 to 7 to recommend the bill for passage. As approved, it provides a tax to be levied on the class of business done and the number of stores operated by the chains.

The tax would graduate upward as the store owners increased their holdings.

BIBLE BILL IS DEAD; ACTION IS POSTPONED

Committee Votes To Kill
Measure Twelve
To One

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The Weaver bill, to make reading of the Bible in the public schools compulsory, is dead, so far as the present legislature is concerned.

The bill was killed by the house schools committee which voted 12 to 1 in favor of indefinitely postponing action.

Because members of the committee—or some of them, at least—were unwilling to have their stand on the bill known, the committee took a secret vote.

Blank slips of paper were passed around on which the members voted "yes" or "no." The slips were dropped into a waste-basket, pressed into service as a ballot box.

When the votes were read off, after the balloting, only one slip disclosed a "no" vote. The member casting this ballot kept his identity secret.

The bill was introduced by Rep. Lloyd Weaver, Akron.

Four years ago a similar measure was passed by both the senate and house, after a bitter fight which threatened to disrupt the entire legislative program, but was afterwards vetoed by former Governor Donahey.

The Weaver bill would have required the reading of ten verses of the Bible in the public schools each day, without comment, at the opening of the school day. Teachers refusing or omitting the required reading would have been subject to dismissal.

FIVE REFORMATORY PRISONERS ESCAPE

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The state bureau of identification today broadcast descriptions of five prisoners who walked away from the state reformatory at Mansfield. They were:

Raymond Bressler, 23, admitted Oct. 16, 1928, from Van Wert, to serve one to seven years for grand larceny.

Delbert Smith, 18, admitted July 30, 1926, from Dayton to serve an indeterminate sentence for automobile theft.

Hughes Allen, 18, admitted May 23, 1928, from Guernsey County to serve one to twenty years for automobile theft.

Lloyd Stillings, 20, admitted March 10, 1927, from Cleveland, to serve one to fifteen years for burglary and larceny.

Edward Vaselesky, 20, admitted March 18, 1927, from Cleveland, to serve ten to twenty-five years for robbery.

SMALL TRADERS WIPED OUT IN SALE ORGY ON STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, March 27.—Echoes of a financial earthquake rumbled along Wall St. today as traders, having weathered one of the strangest sessions in the history of the stock exchange, looked forward to an early easing of an acute money stringency.

Thousands of small investors, many of whom undoubtedly lost all their savings, were wiped off the trading lists yesterday when an avalanche of selling brought sales to $246,740 shares. But it was the sharp reaction which followed the decline and sent prices crawling upward again that commanded most interest as the session was held in retrospect.

The total of shares sold exceeded all previous records in this exchange or any other. The decline was forced by a 20 per cent rate for call loans, the highest rate in nine years. But in the face of these factors and an additional element of fright on the part of small investors who saw their margins dwindle and their stocks go overboard, a wave of buying set in during the closing hours and prices all but regained Monday's closing figures.

ADJUTANT GENERAL REYNOLDS HONORED BY XENIANS TUESDAY

Urges Support Of National Guard At Ki-Bo Dinner; Many Distinguished Visitors Present; Foch Honored

Progress of the National Guard in the United States was sketched by Brig. Gen. Arthur W. Reynolds, adjutant-general of Ohio, who was honor guest and principal speaker at a banquet arranged jointly by the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs at the Elks' Home Tuesday night.

Asserting that the term of national guard or militia is not a new one, Adjutant-General Reynolds disclosed that a militia was in service in Europe three or four centuries ago. Tracing the progress of the organization, the speaker said that after the Revolutionary War little was heard of the militia except that under a constitutional requirement still in effect it was mustered together once every year.

Shortly before the Civil War some condition existed for several years. But in the early 70's the period of national independent companies were organized in Ohio. These served a splendid purpose during the war and formed the nucleus of the organization of the large body of officers and men who took part in the war.

STATE DEPARTMENT PLANS ARGUMENT IN SINKING OF VESSEL

Authority Upholds Rights
Of Coast Guard In Case

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The state department today chose its battle ground for the argument which will ensue if Canada protests the sinking of the rum smuggler I'm Alone 200 miles off the American coast by United States coast guard cutters.

But almost simultaneously it became known Canada may prefer to permit the I'm Alone case to be handled by United States courts instead of by diplomatic negotiations.

While diplomats pondered the available facts and precedents, congressional leaders evidenced an increasing interest in the case. Although refusing to speak now for quotation, one congressional authority of international law firmly upheld the coast guard's right to overhull and sink the I'm Alone.

If this attitude were maintained despite any assessment for damages or reparations which might be made against the United States as a result of the sinking and death of a seaman, it was believed that diplomatic furor would be greater than already exists.

It was recalled in this connection that congress would be called upon by President Hoover for an appropriation to pay any claims which might arise. For all practical purposes the necessity of obtaining a congressional appropriation would give congress the right to review any arbitral findings against the United States.

Canada's indecision as to procedure results, the United Press was informed, from lack of complete reports which now are en route both from British consular and American coast guard officials in New Orleans.

Of the facts support Captain Randell of the I'm Alone in his statement that he was outside all treaty and other limits when accosted by the coast guard. Canada would prefer to have the matter adjusted by American courts.

The Cold Harbor and the Federal, both Canadian vessels, seized under such circumstances, were restored to their owners by American courts. Diplomats said if the sinking of the I'm Alone were held unlawful on these grounds there would be a perfect claim for damages against the United States.

American officials are operating on the theory the I'm Alone was accosted first within the hour's sailing or steaming time established by the 1923 liquor smuggling treaty. If that proves to be true, this government will support the action of the coast guard, the United Press was informed, by citing three similar instances.

The Canadian smugglers Vincennes, Newton Bay and Pescawpa all were seized by coast guard cutters within the past two years outside the waters of the treaty limit.

In each instance the pursuit began under the treaty limit waters and in each instance the U. S. federal courts upheld the guardsmen and ordered the vessel confiscated. No protests were made by Canada.

THREE DEAD IN TRAIN WRECK

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., March 27.—The toll of a head-on crash that piled two Nickel Plate freight trains in a mangled flaming wreck here late yesterday, was raised to three today as the bodies of two more trainmen were taken from the cooling wreck.

The dead: John Franklin, 38, engineer of the eastbound train.

Frank Adair, 30, fireman.

O. T. Bensley, 30, brakeman.

All were from Charleston, Ill.

J. M. Apple, fireman of the westbound train, suffered a fractured skull.

Both engineers stuck to their brakes and rode out the crash.

HIGHWAY BILL IS UP BEFORE HOUSE

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The Norton highway bill, one of the few administration measures remaining to be acted upon by the general assembly, was up for passage in the house today.

The bill, introduced by Rep. Lawrence H. Norton, Cleveland, and endorsed by Governor Cooper, amends the highway code enacted two years ago. Most important among its provisions are repeal of the assessments against abutting property for state highways in the few counties where such assessments are still levied, and the permitting of regional highway construction programs.

The house late yesterday passed the Gillen-Ward bill, revising the code of criminal procedure, another administration measure. The bill previously passed the senate but was back before that body today for approval of house amendments.

IMPEACHMENT MOVE GATHERS MOMENTUM AGAINST GOVERNOR

BATON ROUGE, La., March 27.—Impeachment proceedings against Gov. Huey P. Long gathered momentum today as the lower house of the legislature prepared to consider a resolution embodying nineteen counts, charging the executive with various crimes in office.

The most sensational of the counts charged Gov. Long asked his former personal bodyguard, H. A. ("Batling") Boreman, to murder State Representative J. Y. Sanders, Jr., a political opponent.

The other charges accused the governor of habitual drunkenness, crimes and misdemeanors in office, oppression and gross misconduct. It was the first time such action had been taken in the history of the state.

Speaking for Governor Long last night, Representative J. E. McClanahan, administration leader and friend of the chief executive charged the Standard Oil Company with originating the impeachment proceedings.

The governor, he said, would make no statement until today, but said he was speaking for Long in saying the latter was not greatly concerned about the impeachment charges.

The Standard Oil Company joined forces with the old regulars to defeat our occupation tax measure, which would have assessed five cents on every barrel of crude oil," he said. "They were strong enough to defeat the bill, and now are using this new strength to force through these charges."

One of the nineteen charges sets forth an affidavit to the effect that some few weeks ago Long called Bozeman, a former prize fighter to the governor's mansion and urged him to do away with Sanders. Bozeman said the governor was drinking at the time.

The reason for the governor's desire to kill Sanders, the affidavit stated, was because a special session of the legislature was imminent and Long believed Sanders would attempt to block his measures.

"I have chosen you to do away with this Bozeman quoted the governor as saying, 'I mean for you to kill the and leave him in the ditch where nobody will know how or when he got there.'"

First pictures of the British schooner I'm Alone, with its Captain John T. Randell, rushed to Central Press by plane and telephoto. The ship was sunk off the coast of Louisiana as a rum runner by United States coast guard patrol boats. Photo shows the coast guard cutters, Dexter, leading, and, Walcott, after landing at New Orleans, where they brought Randell (inset) and the crew of his ship under heavy guard, after sinking the I'm Alone, shown at right.

BIBLE BILL IS DEAD; ACTION IS POSTPONED

Committee Votes To Kill
Measure Twelve
To One

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The Weaver bill, to make reading of the Bible in the public schools compulsory, is dead, so far as the present legislature is concerned. The bill was killed by the house schools committee which voted 12 to 1 in favor of indefinitely postponing action.

Because members of the committee—or some of them, at least—were unwilling to have their stand on the bill known, the committee took a secret vote.

Blank slips of paper were passed around on which the members voted "yes" or "no." The slips were dropped into a waste-basket, pressed into service as a ballot box.

When the votes were read off, after the balloting, only one slip disclosed a "no" vote. The member casting this ballot kept his identity secret.

The bill was introduced by Rep. Lloyd Weaver, Akron. Four years ago a similar measure was passed by both the senate and house, after a bitter fight which threatened to disrupt the entire legislative program, but was afterwards vetoed by former Governor Donahay.

The Weaver bill would have required the reading of ten verses of the Bible in the public schools each day, without comment, at the opening of the school day. Teachers refusing or omitting the required reading would have been subject to dismissal.

FIVE REFORMATORY PRISONERS ESCAPE

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The state bureau of identification today broadcast descriptions of five prisoners who walked away from the state reformatory at Mansfield. They were:

Raymond Bressler, 23, admitted Oct. 16, 1928, from Van Wert, to serve one to seven years for grand larceny.

Delbert Smith, 18, admitted July 30, 1926, from Dayton to serve an indeterminate sentence for automobile theft.

Hughes Allen, 18, admitted May 23, 1928, from Guernsey County to serve one to twenty years for automobile theft.

Lloyd Stillings, 20, admitted March 10, 1927, from Cleveland, to serve one to fifteen years for burglary and larceny.

Edward Veselsky, 20, admitted March 18, 1927, from Cleveland, to serve ten to twenty-five years for robbery.

The measure has been vigorously opposed in previous committee hearings, representatives of chain stores declaring it was designed to "tax them out of business."

Rep. G. E. Sharp of Winston County, author of the bill, estimates it would yield more than $4,000,000 annually in revenue.

Of the proceeds $440,000 will be divided among the counties for the mothers' pension fund. The remainder would go into the state general revenue fund.

Attorney General Gilbert C. Bettman is expected to rule either late today or tomorrow as to whether the bill is constitutional.

SMALL TRADERS WIPED OUT IN SALE ORGY ON STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, March 27.—Echoes of a financial earthquake rumbled along Wall St. today as traders, having weathered one of the strangest seasons in the history of the stock exchange, looked forward to an early easing of an acute money stringency.

Thousands of small investors, many of whom undoubtedly lost all their savings, were wiped off the trading lists yesterday when an avalanche of selling brought sales to $246,740 shares. But it was the sharp reaction which followed the decline and sent prices crawling upward again that commanded most interest as the session was held in retrospect. The total of shares sold exceeded all previous records in this exchange or any other. The decline was forced by a 20 per cent rate for call loans, the highest rate in nine years. But in the face of these factors and an additional element of fright on the part of small investors who saw their margins dwindle and their stocks go overboard, a wave of buying set in during the closing hours and prices all but regained Monday's closing figures.

ADJUTANT GENERAL REYNOLDS HONORED BY XENIANS TUESDAY

Urges Support Of National Guard At Ki-Ro Dinner; Many Distinguished Visitors Present; Foch Honored

Progress of the National Guard in the United States was sketched by Brig. Gen. Arthur W. Reynolds, adjutant-general of Ohio, who was honor guest and principal speaker at a banquet arranged jointly by the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs at the Elks' Home Tuesday night.

Asserting that the term of national guard or militia is not a new one, Adjutant-General Reynolds disclosed that a militia was in service in Europe three or four centuries ago. Tracing the progress of the organization, the speaker said that after the Revolutionary War little was heard of the militia except that under a constitutional requirement still in effect it was mustered together once every year.

"Shortly before the Civil War same condition existed for several years. But in the early 70's the need for an organized militia was realized. This reserve force was known as the militia until the Spanish-American War. The late President McKinley at that time called for 250,000 volunteers and this quota was almost immediately filled by national guardsmen alone."

"After this war all were mustered out of service in Ohio except one regiment. Then came the period of reorganization of the National Guard about the time of the Mexican border service, and later the World War."

Departing from his set speech, Adjutant-General Reynolds congratulated Xenia on obtaining a National Guard Armory but urged the support of Company L, 147th Infantry, local guard unit, which, he said, "would need a lot of encouragement from the citizens."

"I don't think any of you appreciate what it means for Company L to obtain a satisfactory rating at the last federal inspection, handicapped as the guard unit is by its present inadequate quarters on E. Main St."

"Look at the work involved. Look what this rifle unit has accomplished in its present quarters. The local company has equipment worth $14,900 and care of this property is a big responsibility for Captain O. H. Cornwell."

"If Captain Cornwell is going to get any place with his company he must have the support of the business interests of the city. A committee of citizens should be appointed to visit the new armory several times a year and the best class of young men should be encouraged to join the company."

Adjutant-General Reynolds was introduced by Harry E. Rice, chairman of the Kiwanis committee which arranged the dinner, who acknowledged the support of the business interests of the city.

STATE DEPARTMENT PLANS ARGUMENT IN SINKING OF VESSEL

Authority Upholds Rights
Of Coast Guard In Case

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The state department today chose its battle ground for the argument which will ensue if Canada protests the sinking of the rum smuggler I'm Alone 200 miles off the American coast by United States coast guard cutters.

But almost simultaneously it became known Canada may prefer to permit the I'm Alone case to be handled by United States courts instead of by diplomatic negotiations.

While diplomats pondered the available facts and precedents, congressional leaders evidenced an increasing interest in the case. Although refusing to speak now for quotation, one congressional authority of international law firmly upheld the coast guard's right to overhail and sink the I'm Alone.

If this attitude were maintained despite any assessment for damages or reparations which might be made against the United States as a result of the sinking and death of a seaman, it was believed that diplomatic furor would be greater than already exists.

It was recalled in this connection that congress would be called upon by President Hoover for an appropriation to pay any claims which might arise. For all practical purposes the necessity of retaining a congressional appropriation would give congress the right to review any arbitral finding against the United States.

Canada's indecision as to procedure results, the United Press was informed, from lack of complete reports which now are en route both from British consular and American coast guard officials in New Orleans.

Of the facts support Captain Randell of the I'm Alone in his statement that he was outside all treaty and other limits when accosted by the coast guard. Canada would prefer to have the matter adjusted by American courts.

The Cold Harbor and the Federal, both Canadian vessels, seized under such circumstances, were returned to their owners by American courts. Diplomats said if the sinking of the I'm Alone were held unlawful on these grounds there would be a perfect claim for damages against the United States.

American officials are operating on the theory the I'm Alone was accosted first within the hour's sailing of the treaty limit, established by the 1923 liquor smuggling treaty. If that proves to be true, this government will support the action of the coast guard, the United Press was informed, by citing three similar instances.

The Canadian smugglers Vines, Newton Bay and Pescadore all were seized by coast guard cutters within the past two years outside the waters of the treaty limit. In each instance the pursuit began within the treaty limit waters and in each instance the U. S. federal courts upheld the guardsmen and ordered the vessel confiscated. No protests were made by Canada.

THREE DEAD IN
TRAIN WRECK

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., March 27.—The toll of a head-on crash that piled two Nickel Plate freight trains in a mass of flaming wreckage near here late yesterday, was raised to three today as the bodies of two more trainmen were taken from the cooling wreck.

The dead: John Franklin, 38, engineer of the eastbound train. Frank Adair, 30, fireman. O. T. Bensley, 30, brakeman. All were from Charleston, Ill.

J. M. Kipple, fireman of the westbound train, suffered a fractured skull. Both engineers stuck to their brakes and rode out the crash.

HIGHWAY BILL IS UP BEFORE HOUSE

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The Norton highway bill, one of the few administration measures remaining to be acted upon by the general assembly, was up for passage in the house today.

The bill, introduced by Rep. Laurence H. Norton, Cleveland, and endorsed by Governor Cooper, amends the highway code enacted two years ago. Most important among its provisions are repeal of the assessments against abutting property for state highways in the few counties where such assessments are still levied, and the permitting of regional highway construction programs.

The house late yesterday passed the Gillen-Ward bill, revising the code of criminal procedure, another administration measure. The bill previously passed the senate but was back before that body today for approval of house amendments.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Mar. 27.—Don V. Carey, of Kenton, who graduates in June from Bexley Hall Seminary, Gambler, has been appointed pastor of Trinity Church here succeeding the Rev. Albert Baker who goes to Steubenville. He will assume the pastorate immediately after graduation.

FORMER XENIAN TO WED IN FLORIDA.

Word has been received here of the coming marriage of Miss Mary McFadden, Deland, Fla., former Xenian, and daughter of Mrs. Ema McFadden to Mr. Beryl Heminger of Akron, senior student in the law school of Stetson University, Deland, Fla. They will be married Saturday, March 30, at Daytona Beach.

Mr. Heminger is president of the Sigma Nu fraternity of Stetson University. Miss McFadden is a kindergarten teacher in Deland. She is a sister of Mr. Glenn McFadden, Xenia.

CLASS ENJOYS SUPPER AT CHURCH.

The W. H. C. class of the United Brethren Church met at the church dormitory, Tuesday evening, for a lovely covered dish supper and meeting.

There were thirty-three members present.

Easter decorations were carried out with a large Easter cake and candies as the center piece for the table. Following the supper a business meeting was held at which time a report was given, showing that by the efforts of the class, it has been able to raise $89 during the last month. After the business meeting a general social time was enjoyed.

PENNSY WOMEN'S AID ENJOYS LUNCHEON

Members of the Women's Aid of the Pennsylvania Railroad and their friends met at the station rooms Tuesday afternoon for a delightful luncheon. There were about forty-five present, with guests from Cincinnati, Grand Rapids and Dayton. Cards and sewing were enjoyed following the luncheon. Mrs. J. R. McCorkell won first prize for 500 and Mrs. Shea of Dayton won second. Mrs. C. W. Suesse won the door prize.

CLASS ENTERTAINED

Miss Dena Watkins entertained members of her Sunday School class of the First Reformed Church at her home Tuesday afternoon. Music, games and contests were enjoyed after which a lovely refreshment course was served. Those present were: Barbara Kuhn, Marjorie Jeffries, Adrienne Dangas, Eleanor Ackley and Betty McPherson.

The J. F. F. Club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Soward, Upper Bellbrook Pike, Friday evening. Each family please bring a pie.

THREE SHORT PLAYS WILL FURNISH NEXT OFFERING OF GUILD

The third offering of the Xenia Little Theater Guild this season will take the form of three one-act plays to be presented to members of the organization within the next three weeks. It was decided at a meeting of the Guild Tuesday night in the assembly room of the Court House.

Members have not reached a definite decision as to what plays will be given, however, and the date for their presentation has not been fixed.

Guild members, according to Miss Alice Foley, president, will be formally notified of a meeting expected to be held in the assembly room at 7:30 p. m. next Monday at which they will have an opportunity to try out for parts in the three plays.

They will also have a chance to list what particular talents they may have for different phases of acting and what roles they believe themselves best suited to fill.

In this way it is pointed out that every member of the Guild will have an opportunity to try out for a part in the coming plays. It was also planned at the meeting to appoint various committees and to draw up a constitution for the new organization.

ARREST CAPONE FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT IN FEDERAL PROBE

CHICAGO, March 27.—A warrant for the arrest of "Scarface" Al Capone was sworn out by the United States district attorney's office charging the gang leader with contempt of federal court. Capone is alleged to have presented a false affidavit from a Miami physician, early this month as a part of his campaign to postpone his appearance before a federal grand jury which is investigating beer running in the Chicago district.

The affidavit set forth that Capone was so ill at his Florida estate that a trip to Chicago in early March would endanger his health. On the strength of his appearance before the federal grand jury was postponed from March 12 to March 20.

Capone was locked in an anteroom of the grand jury quarters in the federal building when it became known that the warrant had been issued. Assistant District Attorney Daniel Anderson revealed that Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition enforcement, had advised government authorities here to place Capone under arrest. Anderson said the warrant probably would be served as soon as the gang chief emerged from the grand jury room.

THREE PERISH IN FLAMES IN HOUSE

EMPORIUM, Pa., March 27.—A 12-year-old girl died vainly today trying to save her twin sister in a fire which burned three persons to death, two others were seriously burned, and one was injured by leaping to safety.

Mrs. John Smith had started a coal fire to prepare breakfast for her family. She went to sleep on a lounge, only to be awakened by smoke and flame.

She screamed to arouse the household. Thelma Smith, 12, ran outside, then dashed back into the blazing room to rescue Vilma, her twin. She failed and both burned to death. Vilma in bed and Thelma in a doorway.

Mary Ann Smith, 3, died in her crib.

Dorothy Smith, 12, and the father escaped with severe burns.

Harold Smith, brother of the burned girls, leaped from a second story window and was seriously injured.

Mrs. Smith alone escaped burns or other hurts.

FORMER XENIAN IS AUTO CRASH VICTIM

Mrs. Rolly Shaw, W. Second St., has received word that her brother, O. H. Bowermaster, 53, former Xenian, lost his life in an auto accident in Indianapolis, Ind., Tuesday night. No details of the accident accompanied the message.

Bowermaster was born in Bowensville, September 16, 1875 and moved from Xenia to Indianapolis, Ind., ten years ago. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Peter Bowermaster, his city, who was in Indianapolis on a visit at the time of the accident; two sons, Earl and Benjamin, and one daughter, Miss Helen, all of Indianapolis; four sisters, Mrs. Peter Stafford, Mrs. John Daly, Mrs. Ernest Fanning and Mrs. Rolly Shaw, all of Xenia; and one brother, Roy, this city.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

PLEADS GUILTY TO TWO CHARGES; FINED

Pines totalling $200 and costs and a suspended sentence of thirty days in the County Jail was the punishment meted out by Probate Judge S. C. Wright Wednesday morning to James Frame, Columbus Pike, near Cedarville, when he pleaded guilty to charges of driving an auto while intoxicated and transporting liquor. Frame was fined $100 and costs on the transportation charge and $100 and costs on the reckless driving charge with a thirty-day jail sentence suspended on the condition of future good behavior. He paid the assessment and was released.

The court also ordered that the coupe owned by Frame and confiscated temporarily by Sheriff Ohmer Tate be restored to him.

COURT OF APPEALS STILL IN SESSION

The Court of Appeals, second judicial district, which convened in Common Pleas Court Tuesday morning to consider fourteen cases appealed on error, continued in session Wednesday and expected to complete its work in the afternoon.

Among the cases considered at Tuesday's session, arguments were heard in the appeal of Gilbert Cooper, 49, from his first degree murder conviction and life sentence for the slaying of Caleb Hitchcock near Cedarville, last November 24. One case listed for consideration, that of The Wabash Portland Cement Co. against The Southwestern Portland Cement Co. and others, will be heard by the appellate court at Dayton April 12 due to the fact one of the attorneys in the case from Dayton sustained an eye injury in an accident recently and was unable to be present for the sessions here.

COUPLE ROBBED OF $4,000 IN JEWELS

CLEVELAND, O., March 27.—Two bandits held up Mr. and Mrs. Sam Newman in the driveway of their home here early today and escaped with jewelry valued at $4,000.

Newman, a real estate dealer, told police he and his wife had just returned from a function at the Jewish Community Center when robbers accosted them.

From Mrs. Newman the bandits took three diamond rings and tore a bar pin from her dress. Newman was forced to surrender a diamond ring and a stick pin.

AUTO TOUR OF EUROPE WINFIELD, Kan., March 27.—The first American auto tour of Europe will be conducted this summer under the auspices of Henry W. Taylor, professor of mathematics at Southwestern College here. The tour, known as the Southwestern Travel Club, will take the party through seven countries.

SORE THROAT THOXINE

Wash clothes in water softened with Melo—save 1/3 to 1/2 the usual amount of soap

Clothes washed in hard water are hard to get clean. The hardness in the water combines with the soap and makes scum. The scum collects dirt. It gets into the fabric of the clothes. No amount of rinsing can get it all out.

But soften hard water with Melo and there isn't any scum. The water makes wonderful suds. Melo saves from 1/3 to 1/2 the amount of soap ordinarily used. With or without soap, water softened with Melo is a wonderful cleaner. Get it at your grocer's.

SPORT SNAP SHOTS

FRAMED

Judge Emil Fuchs, manager-owner of the Boston Braves, is nothing if not original. If being in the pink of physical condition means anything the Braves should be in the thick of the pennant fight this year because every morning the judge's players go through a system of calisthenics on the ball field. Then they are covered with blankets as a final touch, given a brisk rubdown. The old collegiate spirit is at work.

Fuchs calls it "health training." Dr. Erle Painter, formerly of Springfield University, who has the exercises in charge, also teaches the players how to run and get various muscles into shape for the long season's grind. Three rubbers whom the club will carry all year assist him.

Said Fuchs: "I regard Dr. Painter as valuable to the club as an extra player. Sisler, Collins and Taylor told me they learned more about running from Painter than they did during their entire career as ball players."

A thirty-game program is being announced this season for the Villanova College baseball team, which last year was recognized as one of the outstanding nines in collegiate circles. Upon graduating five of the players will join major league teams.

Recently we unburdened our thoughts to some length on the subject of the "old amateur game" which seems to be rapidly assuming a professional aspect.

Take the case of Johnny Weismuller, who recently turned professional. He has been visiting Miami Beach each winter for many years and was down there recently, the chief attraction of the Roman Pools, where each Sunday afternoon he drew a capacity crowd.

It is not obvious how Johnny loafed on Sunday afternoons in previous years when he was classed as an amateur and the chief Olympic hope of America. Nor was the knowledge common to everyone that Weismuller was sufficiently well-heeled to live an independent life at one of those Florida playgrounds.

Now he draws a salary and no questions are asked. But he drew no pay a year ago, and yet outwardly he made practically the same appearance and lived quite as luxuriously.

Although Johnny will be sorely missed when the U. S. next makes a bid for Olympic swimming honors, he undoubtedly did the best thing in turning pro. Now he will not be classed with some of our noted athletes who in the opinion of many people are stepping too close to that border line which divides an amateur from a professional.

ASSEMBLY MAY END WORK APRIL 11 OR 12

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The 88th Ohio general assembly will probably finish its work and adjourn April 11 or 12.

Legislative leaders today tentatively agreed to bring the session to an end during the second week in April, the exact date to be determined in the light of developments in the next week.

The rules committee of the senate has decided the upper chamber would be able to adjourn finally not later than April 11 or 12, without an intervening recess.

House leaders have been planning the work of that body with a view to recessing at the end of next week, if necessary to permit the clerk's office to catch up with detail work, and then to clear the decks and adjourn as soon as possible thereafter.

The house is expected to pass the $114,500,000 general appropriation bill tomorrow. The bill will then be sent to the senate, and that body will vote on the measure on the last legislative day of the following week.

CHAMPIONS REPEAT BY WINNING THREE GAMES FROM LANGS

Title Holders Have Nine Game Lead In Recreation

THE champion Greene County Lumber Co. quintet has clinched the 1928-29 championship of the Xenia Recreation Bowling League for the second consecutive season.

The champions clinched the title beyond any mathematical uncertainty by winning three straight games from the Lang Transfers in a league match Tuesday night.

Actually the championship was won through a victory in the first of the three games.

The Lumber company team now holds a nine-game lead over the second-place Red Wing Co. and has only six more games to play.

Even if the league-leaders lost all of their remaining games and the Red Wings won their last six, the champions would still wind up the schedule with a three-game advantage.

The league title-holders totaled 2,792 for three games, rolling games of 936, 904 and 952.

Moorehead turned in a series of 604 for the winners while Dan Jordan led the losers with 593.

The personnel of the championship team is practically the same as last year. Hollis Peterson, William Moorehead, Ben Dice, Chalmers Murphy and Howard Erickel compose the team. Box score:

Baseball Puzzlers

By CHARLEY BARRETT
Big League Scout Writing for Central Press and The Gazette

The old Cotton States league produced a play some years ago that I will always remember. In all my experience I do not remember seeing it duplicated.

Several of us scouts were assembled at this time, all interested in the same pitcher whose reputation had reached the ears of the managers.

The club for which I was working at the time did not have a big bankroll, and I knew I had little chance of grabbing this fellow in case he proved to be the goods. Just the same, I wanted to get an eyeful of his work.

Like many youngsters, he was inclined to be nervous when tipped off that his work was being watched. He was trying too hard, and was very wild. He was on the road, too, before a hostile crowd.

At any rate, the score was tied in the last inning, with the bases filled, two out and two and three on the batter. A ticklish sport for any pitcher, and this kid was awfully excited. He thought his future might depend on that next pitch.

Naturally, he tightened up, and didn't come near the plate. Then came the amazing part. Both the batsman and the runner on third ducked for the clubhouse, the umpire yelled "ball four."

The fellow on third made no attempt to score, and the batter made no attempt to run to first. The umpire was stumped, and so was everyone else. But the rest of the home team quickly followed to the clubhouse, leaving the visiting players to take up the matter. They finally threw the ball to the plate, to first and every other base.

Finally the umpire beat it to his own dressing room and to this day I don't know whether or not the natives of that town ever got squared on the play.

FUR DEALERS ROUT WOULD-BE BANDITS

NAPOLEON, O., March 27.—Pists and shots flew thick and fast near here early today and when the smoke of battle cleared away, two Cincinnati fur dealers had routed two bandits.

The fur men, Max Schul, 35, and Nick Rido, 35, were forced to the side of the road near Turkey Foot bridge as they were driving to Toledo from Cincinnati.

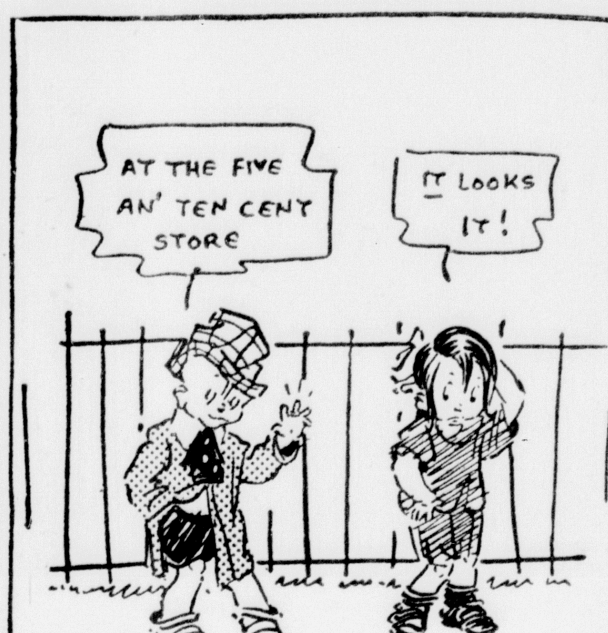

One of the bandits, in attempting to rip a ring from Schul's hand, shot off the end of one of Schul's fingers.

Rido, the hero of the encounter, disarmed one of the robbers and after knocking him down, attacked the other.

The robbers fled to their car, hastily started it and sped away. The machine bore an Indiana license.

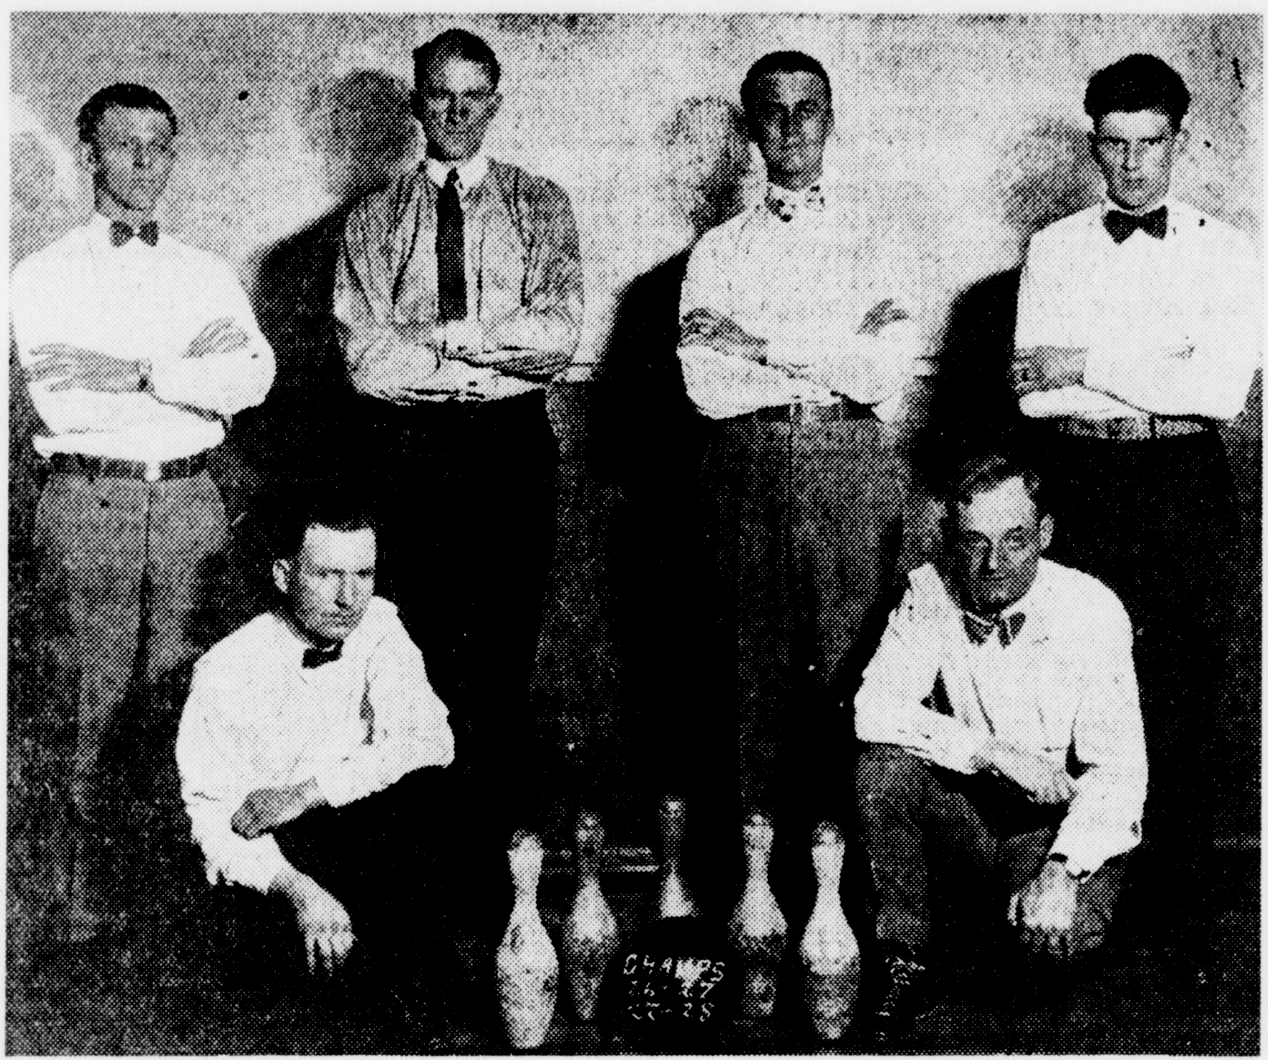

Rido brought Schul here for treatment, and their journey to Cincinnati was resumed.

THESE BOWLERS AGAIN TAKE LEAGUE TITLE

For the second straight season the Greene County Lumber Co. quintet reigns supreme in Xenia bowling circles. Tuesday night the champions clinched the championship of the Recreation Bowling League for the second time, two weeks in advance of the end of the schedule.

ARNOLDS TAKEN TO BEGIN JAIL TERMS

WOOSTER, O., March 27.—Elias Arnold and his son Arthur, 17, who were sentenced to prison terms for stealing $4,500 from the Horst of Orville, were taken to their respective prisons today.

Sheriff Clark Shearer and a deputy left Wooster secretly with the prisoners, going first to Mansfield where Arthur Arnold will begin an indeterminate sentence in the state reformatory.

From Mansfield the officers will take Elias Arnold to the state penitentiary at Columbus to serve twenty years.

The Horst had disappeared last December after his uncle, Marshal Roy Horst, arrested the elder Arnold on liquor law charges.

None of the Arnolds' relatives bid them farewell.

The Arnolds maintained the silence which has characterized them since their conviction.

MISSOURI RISES AS ICE JAMS STREAM

BISMARCK, N. D., March 27.—Jammed by a monster ice jam, the Missouri River was two feet above flood level here today.

Farmers hastily deserted their homes in lowlands and fled to the bluffs.

Bombing planes from Fort Riley, Kan., have been summoned to blast the jam.

A region twenty-five miles long and thirty miles wide was rapidly filling with water that rushed around the mountainous piles of ice.

Flood conditions at Washburn, fifty miles north of Bismarck, were the worst in forty years, it was reported.

GROH OUSTER WILL BE STARTED SOON

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—With the return today of State Probation Commissioner Rupert R. Beatham, formal ouster proceedings against Mayor P. J. Groh of Dover were expected to be started.

Groh is charged with accepting a bribe from state dry agent who posed as a run runner. The charge has been laid before Governor Cooper who directed the institution of ouster action.

ENVELOPE PRICES REDUCED APRIL 1

A reduced scale of prices for stamped envelopes, printed and unprinted, will become effective April 1. Postmaster C. S. Frazer has been advised by postal authorities.

Two-cent stamped envelopes, sizes No. 5 and No. 13 are the most generally used by the public. The following reduced prices will prevail, quoted for 1,000 envelopes:

New price for No. 5 two-cent stamped, printed envelopes is $21.60. The old price was $21.92.

For unprinted envelopes, same size, the new quotation is $21.36 compared with the old price of $21.72.

New price of printed envelopes, size No. 13 will be $21.74. The old price was $22.08.

A reduced price of $21.60 will prevail for unprinted envelopes, same size, the former quotation being $21.84.

Old Gold wins at Princeton

in a test of the 4 leading cigarettes

THE DAILY PRINCETONIAN

"The Daily Princetonian" was asked by the P. Lorillard Company, makers of OLD GOLD cigarettes, to conduct a test at Princeton to determine which of the four widest-selling cigarettes had the greatest taste appeal.

For the purposes of the test the four leading cigarettes were "masked" to conceal the brand names. Undergraduates were asked to smoke the four brands without knowing their identity. The cigarettes were numbered, and the men merely chose, by number, the one that appealed to them most.

The test was made at eleven Princeton upper-class clubs and at the Freshman Commons on January 11th to 16th. In all, 303 students smoked and compared the four cigarettes. The test was conducted in a perfectly fair and impartial manner.

The results show that "Cigarette W" won 75 first choices; "Cigarette X" won 74; "Cigarette Y" won 36; and "Cigarette Z" (which was OLD GOLD) won 118. The preference for OLD GOLD was 57% greater than that for the next highest brand.

Judge Emil Fuchs, manager-owner of the Boston Braves, is nothing if not original. If being in the pink of physical condition means anything the Braves should be in the thick of the pennant fight this year because every morning the judge's players go through a system of calisthenics on the ball field. Then they are covered with blankets as a final touch, given a brisk rubdown. The old collegiate spirit is it there.

Fuchs calls it "ice training." Dr. Eria Painter, formerly of Springfield University, who has the exercises in charge, also teaches the players how to run and get various muscles into shape for the long season's grind. Three rubbers whom the club will carry all year assist him.

Said Fuchs: "I regard Dr. Painter as valuable to the club as an extra player. Sisler, Collins and Taylor told me they learned more about running from Painter than they did during their entire career as ball players."

A thirty-game program is being announced this season for the Villanova College baseball team, which last year was recognized as one of the outstanding lines in collegiate circles. Upon graduating five of the players will join major league teams.

Recently we unbundled our thoughts of some length on the subject of the "old amateur game" which seems to be rapidly assuming a professional aspect.

Take the case of Johnny Weismuller, who recently turned professional. He has been visiting Miami Beach each winter for many years and was down there recently, the chief attraction of the Roman Pools, where each Sunday afternoon he drew a capacity crowd.

It is not obvious how Johnny loafed on Sunday afternoons in previous years when he was classed as an amateur and the chief Olympic hope of America. Nor was the knowledge common to everyone that Weismuller was sufficiently well-heeled to live an independent life at one of those Florida playgrounds.

Now he draws a salary and no questions are asked. But he drew no pay a year ago, and yet outwardly he made practically the same appearance and lived quite as luxuriously.

Although Johnny will be sorely missed when the U. S. next makes a bid for Olympic swimming honors, he undoubtedly did the best thing in turning pro. Now he will not be classed with some of our noted athletes who in the opinion of many people are attempting too close to that border line which divides an amateur from a professional.

ASSEMBLY MAY END
WORK APRIL 11 OR 12

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The 88th Ohio general assembly will probably finish its work and adjourn April 11 or 12.

Legislative leaders today tentatively agreed to bring the session to an end during the second week in April, the exact date to be determined in the light of developments in the next week.

The rules committee of the senate has decided the upper chamber would be able to adjourn finally not later than April 11 or 12, without an intervening recess.

House leaders have been planning the work of that body with a view to recessing at the end of next week, if necessary to permit the clerk's office to catch up with the desk work, and then to clear the desks and adjourn as soon as possible thereafter.

The house is expected to pass the $114,500,000 general appropriation bill tomorrow. The bill will then be sent to the senate, and that body will vote on the measure on the last legislative day of the following week.

Lumber Company Bowlers Cinch Loop Title

CHAMPIONS REPEAT
BY WINNING THREE GAMES FROM LANGSTitle Holders Have Nine Game Lead In Recreation

THE champion Greene County Lumber Co. quintet has clinched the 1928-29 championship of the Xenia Recreation Bowling League for the second consecutive season.

The champions clinched the title beyond any mathematical uncertainty by winning three straight games from the Lang Transfers in a league match Tuesday night.

Actually the championship was won through a victory in the first of the three games.

The lumber company team now holds a nine-game lead over the second-place Red Wing Co. and has only six more games to play. Even if the league-leaders lost all of their remaining games and the Red Wings won their last six, the champions would still wind up the schedule with a three-game advantage.

The league title-holders tallied 2,792 for three games, rolling games of 936, 904 and 952.

Moorehead turned in a series of 604 for the winners while Dan Jordan led the losers with 593.

The personnel of the championship team is practically the same as last year. Hollis Peterson, William Moorehead, Ben Dice, Chalmers Murphy and Howard Brickel compose the team. Box scores:

THESE BOWLERS AGAIN TAKE LEAGUE TITLE

For the second straight season the Greene County Lumber Co. quintet reigns supreme in Xenia bowling circles. Tuesday night the champions clinched the championship of the Recreation Bowling League for the second time, two weeks in advance of the end of the schedule.

BEGIN JAIL TERMS

WOOSTER, O., March 27.—Elias Arnold and his son Arthur, 17, who were sentenced to prison terms for stealing 4-year-old Elvin Horst of Orrville, were taken to their respective prisons today.

Sheriff Clark Shearer and a deputy left Wooster secretly with the prisoners, going first to Mansfield where Arthur Arnold will begin an indeterminate sentence in the state reformatory.

From Mansfield the officers will take Elias Arnold to the state penitentiary at Columbus to serve twenty years.

The Horst had disappeared last December after his uncle, Marshal Roy Horst, arrested the elder Arnold on liquor law charges.

None of the Arnolds' relatives bid them farewell.

The Arnolds maintained the silence which has characterized them since their conviction.

MISSOURI RISES AS ICE JAMS STREAM

BISMARCK, N. D., March 27.—Jammed by a monster ice jam, the Missouri River was two feet above flood level here today.

Farmers hastily deserted their homes in lowlands and fled to the bluffs.

Bombing planes from Fort Riley, Kan., have been summoned to blast the jam.

A region twenty-five miles long and thirty miles wide was rapidly filling with water that rushed around the mountainous piles of ice.

Flood conditions at Washburn, fifty miles north of Bismarck, were the worst in forty years, it was reported.

GROH OUSTER WILL BE STARTED SOON

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—With the return today of State Probation Commissioner Rupert R. Beetham, formal ouster proceedings against Mayor P. J. Groh of Dover were expected to be started.

Groh is charged with accepting a bribe from state dry agent who posed as a rum runner. The charge has been laid before Governor Cooper who directed the institution of ouster action.

ENVELOPE PRICES
REDUCED APRIL 1

A reduced scale of prices for stamped envelopes, printed and unprinted, will become effective April 1, Postmaster C. S. Frazer has been advised by postal authorities.

Two-cent stamped envelopes, sizes No. 5 and No. 13 are the most generally used by the public. The following reduced prices will prevail, quoted for 1,000 envelopes.

New price for No. 5 two-cent stamped, printed envelopes is $21.50. The old price was $21.92.

For unprinted envelopes, same size, the new quotation is $21.38 compared with the old price of $21.72.

New price of printed envelopes, size No. 13 will be $21.74. The old price was $22.08.

A reduced price of $21.60 will prevail for unprinted envelopes, same size, the former quotation being $21.84.

Y. W. C. A. OFFICIALS CONFER

Executives and presidents of the Young Women's Christian Association from 11 cities, representing Philadelphia, New York, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Buffalo, Brooklyn, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis and Cleveland, met in Cleveland recently to confer on problems of city life. They found that the modern city is a hodgepodge of racial, religious, economic and other groups, and that the Y. W. C. A. is a cross section of the metropolis whose function it is to integrate the various groups. Mrs. Robert E. Speer, Lakeville, Conn., national president, right, above, was one of the speakers. Miss Esther B. Hawes, upper left, Pittsburgh, acted as chairman of the program committee of the conference; Miss Margaret Williamson, New York, lower left, secretary of the national board of the business and professional women; Miss Emma P. Hirth, New York, associate general secretary of the national board, and Miss Mary Sims, New York, national city secretary of the Y., were among the speakers.

Ends Life Over Hatred of Millionaire

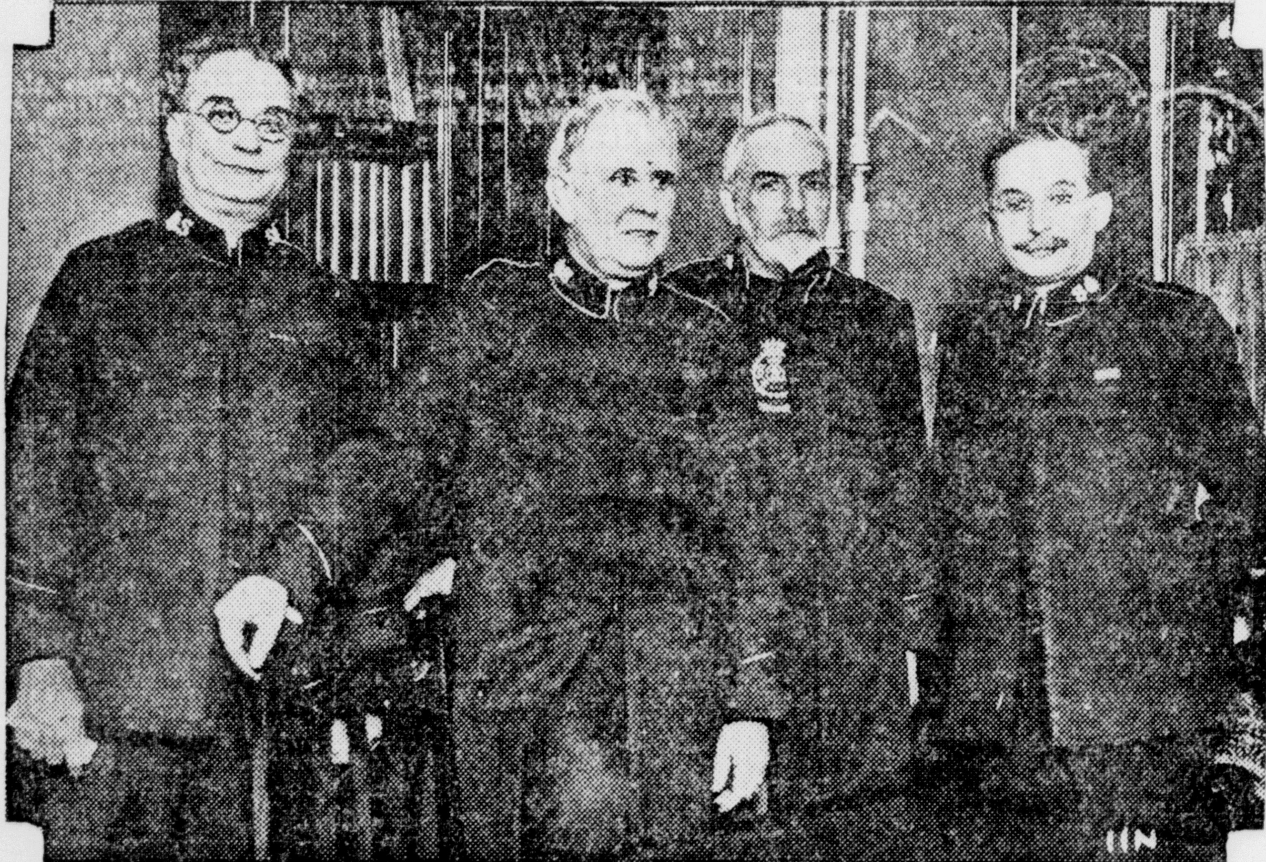

According to letters left by Mrs. Nora Wilson, left, who committed suicide in a Miami hotel, hatred and jealousy of Guy C. Loomis caused her action. Miami authorities, standing left and right, R. H. Hunt, assistant states attorney, and A. F. Katzentine, attorney for Loomis, investigating the case, questioned Catherine Cramer, seated left, and Guy Loomis, right, and established that Loomis was not connected with the death of his former housekeeper.

Rumored as Next Viceroy of India

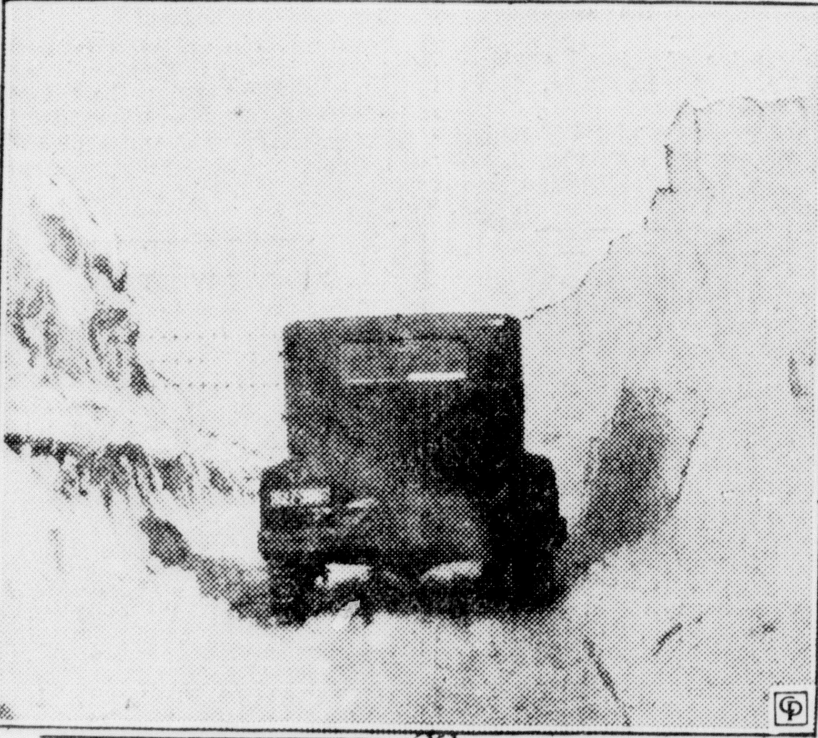

The Duke of York, second son of King George, is to be the next Viceroy of India, according to dispatches emanating from Delhi. It is said he will succeed Viceroy Irwin and thus give royal sponsorship to governmental reforms based on Sir John Simon's commission report. However, there is a question whether the Duke may accept the appointment because of the climatic rigors to which his daughter, Princess Elizabeth, successor to the throne, may be subjected.

SO WEAK SHE COULDN'T WALK

Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gretna, La.—"After my first child was born I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a run-down condition. I could not walk across my room at times, I was so weak. A friend induced me to take the Vegetable Compound. Since that time I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Herb Medicine and the Pills for Constipation, and I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a housekeeper and I am still taking the Vegetable Compound as a tonic to enable me to do my work."—Mrs. E. F. VICKNAIR, 829 Hancock Street, Gretna, La.

WIFE OF A SAILOR-MAN

Mrs. Charles Francis Adams Likes To Yacht With New Navy Secretary.

By BONITA WITT
Staff Writer for Central Press and The Gazette

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Thirty years ago Washington knew Frances Lovering, daughter of Representative Lovering of Taunton, Mass., as one of the leaders of the gay congressional set. Today she returns as the wife of the new secretary of the navy, Charles Francis Adams, great-grandson of John Adams, to take her place again in capital society.

During recent years Mrs. Adams, a frail woman with gray hair and an aristocratic bearing, has done comparatively little entertaining at her home on Commonwealth Ave., Boston, because of ill health.

Her wedding on April 13, 1899, in St. John's cathedral, Boston, was an event of the season. Bishop Mackay-Smith performed the ceremony.

Her summers have been passed chiefly at a private club, "The Glades," near Cohasset, Mass., where she leads a quiet life. Years ago she used to sail a great deal with her husband, who has won recognition as an amateur yachtsman. But of late she has not joined him and her only son, Charles Francis Adams, Jr., on their yachting expeditions to Marblehead, Mass., and other places near their summer residence.

Where Children Are.
Mrs. Adams' only daughter, Mrs. Henry L. Morgan, lives in New York and is the mother of three boys. Her son is a freshman at Harvard university.

Politics never has claimed the time of Mrs. Adams and it is dif-

Mrs. Charles Francis Adams

icult for her to become accustomed to the limelight in which she has found herself since her husband's appointment.

As soon as she is able to find a house suited to her needs, which means a house with adequate living quarters for her servants as well as for herself and the secretary, Mrs. Adams will assume the social duties which are a part of the life of a cabinet woman and enter the official life of Washington, the life which she knew as a girl.

LEARNS SECRETS OF STRADIVARIUS

MILAN, March 27.—The secret method by which Antonio Stradivarius gave the marvellous tone to his violins has been, it is reported, discovered accidentally by an antique dealer of Bergamo.

An old writing bureau was brought to the dealer for repair and in examining it, he discovered a secret drawer containing some letters of Stradivarius and a short autobiography.

In this autobiography, all Stradivarius' secrets for imparting his special tone to violins are carefully explained. The methods used would appear to consist in a particular treatment of the wood and in the use of certain varnishes.

The Bergamo dealer tried to sell Stradivarius' secrets to a Milan musical instrument dealer, but the government was informed of the matter, and confiscated the papers found in the writing bureau.

INVITE SCOUTS TO SERVICES FRIDAY

Xenia Boy Scouts are invited to attend the Good Friday services Friday afternoon at the First Reformed Church.

It has been suggested that Scouts attend the half-hour period from 1:30 to 2 o'clock.

In so doing each Scout will be observing one of the Scout requirements—"A Scout is reverent." Troop No. 45 will meet in the assembly room at the Court House at 1:15 p.m. Friday and the officer in charge will be Assistant Scoutmaster Paul McFarland.

BEAUTY IN DESIGN OF FEDERAL BUILDINGS URGED

By OGDEN L. MILLS

Undersecretary of U. S. Treasury (Ogden Livingston Mills was born at Newport R. I., Aug. 23, 1884. He was graduated from Harvard and admitted to the bar in 1908 and since then has practiced in New York City. He was defeated for election to congress in 1912 and served as a member of the state senate from 1914 to 1916. Serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France during the war, he was commissioned a captain in the army. He was elected to congress in 1921, served six years, and then resigned to accept the office of undersecretary of the treasury. His home is in New York City.)

The federal government is under an obligation to take the leadership in establishing beauty of design as well as practicability of use in the buildings it constructs, and those responsible for carrying out the $300,000,000 building program are fully cognizant of the traditional standards which must be met.

Certainly no one so well as the government itself can set a standard of good taste in architecture and firmly establish it. Our public buildings must of necessity add to or detract from the beauty of any city in which they are erected. Furthermore it is inevitable that they should influence to some extent the architecture of buildings erected by the city or by private enterprise. It is of the greatest importance, therefore, that these buildings which the federal government is erecting should be simple and dignified in design and suitable to the uses to which they are to be put.

But when it comes to the building of a national capital an even greater obligation is imposed upon us. We have inherited from the founders of the republic a great tradition, below which we dare not fall. And as the country has grown in greatness and in influence its capital city has become increasingly important. More and more it is being visited by those who come from every part of this country and the world. We owe it to them and to the generations yet to come to see that they shall find there a great, beautiful city—a city not made with hands only, but into which have been built the beauty and hopes and aspirations of America.

SO WEAK SHE COULDN'T WALK

Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gretina, La.—"After my first child was born I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a run-down condition. I could not walk across my room at times. I was so weak. A friend induced me to take the Vegetable Compound. Since that time I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Herb Medicine and the Pills for Constipation, and I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a housekeeper and I am still taking the Vegetable Compound as a tonic to enable me to do my work."—Mrs. E. E. VICKS, 829 Hancock Street, Gretina, La.

WIFE OF A SAILOR-MAN

Mrs. Charles Francis Adams Likes To Yacht With New Navy Secretary.

By BONITA WITT
Staff Writer for Central Press and The Gazette

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Thirty years ago Washington knew Francis Adams, daughter of Representative Lovering of Taunton, Mass., as one of the leaders of the gay congressional set. Today she returns as the wife of the new secretary of the navy, Charles Francis Adams, great-grandson of John Adams, to take her place again in capital society.

During recent years Mrs. Adams, a frail woman with grayish hair and an aristocratic bearing, has done comparatively little entertaining at her home on Commonwealth Ave., Boston, because of ill health.

Her wedding on April 13, 1899, in St. John's cathedral, Boston, was an event of the season. Bishop Mackay-Smith performed the ceremony. Her summers have been passed chiefly at a private club, "The Glades," near Cohasset, Mass., where she leads a quiet life. Years ago she used to sail a great deal with her husband, who has won recognition as an amateur yachtsman. But of late she has not joined him and her only son, Charles Francis Adams, Jr., on their yachting expeditions to Marblehead, Mass., and other places near their summer residence.

Where Children Are.
Mrs. Adams' only daughter, Mrs. Henry L. Morgan, lives in New York and is the mother of three boys. Her son is a freshman at Harvard university.

Politics never has claimed the time of Mrs. Adams and it is dif-

Mrs. Charles Francis Adams

icult for her to become accustomed to the limelight in which she has found herself since her husband's appointment.

As soon as she is able to find a house suited to her needs, which means a house with adequate living quarters for her servants as well as for herself and the secretary, Mrs. Adams will assume the social duties which are a part of the life of a cabinet woman and enter the official life of Washington, the life which she knew as a girl.

LEARNS SECRETS OF STRADIVARIUS

MILAN, March 27.—The secret method by which Antonio Stradivarius gave the marvellous tone to his violins has been, it is reported, discovered accidentally by an antique dealer of Bergamo.

An old writing bureau was brought to the dealer for repair and in examining it, he discovered a secret drawer containing some letters of Stradivarius and a short autobiography.

In this autobiography, all Stradivarius' secrets for imparting his special tone to violins are carefully explained. The methods used would appear to consist in a particular treatment of the wood and in the use of certain varnishes.

The Bergamo dealer tried to sell Stradivarius' secrets to a Milan musical instrument dealer, but the government was informed of the matter, and confiscated the papers found in the writing bureau.

INVITE SCOUTS TO SERVICES FRIDAY

Xenia Boy Scouts are invited to attend the Good Friday services Friday afternoon at the First Reformed Church.

It has been suggested that Scouts attend the half-hour period from 1:30 to 2 o'clock.

In so doing each Scout will be observing one of the Scout requirements—"A Scout is reverent." Troop No. 45 will meet in the assembly room at the Court House at 1:15 p.m. Friday and the officer in charge will be Assistant Scoutmaster Paul McFarland.

BEAUTY IN DESIGN OF FEDERAL BUILDINGS URGED
By OGDEN L. MILLS

Undersecretary of U. S. Treasury (Ogden Livingston Mills was born at Newport R. I., Aug. 23, 1884. He was graduated from Harvard and admitted to the bar in 1908 and since then has practiced in New York City. He was defeated for election to congress in 1912 and served as a member of the state senate from 1914 to 1916. Serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France during the war, he was commissioned a captain in the army. He was elected to congress in 1921, served six years, and then resigned to accept the office of undersecretary of the treasury. His home is in New York City.)

The federal government is under an obligation to take the leadership in establishing beauty of design as well as practicability of use in the buildings it constructs, and those responsible for carrying out the $300,000,000 building program are fully cognizant of the traditional standards which must be met.

Certainly no one so well as the government itself can set a standard of good taste in architecture and firmly establish it. Our public buildings must of necessity add to or detract from the beauty of any city in which they are erected. Furthermore, it is inevitable that they should influence to some extent the architecture of buildings erected by the city or by private enterprise. It is of the greatest importance, therefore, that these buildings which the federal government is erecting should be simple and dignified in design and suited to the uses to which they are to be put.

But when it comes to the building of a national capital an even greater obligation is imposed upon us. We have inherited from the founders of the republic a great tradition, below which we dare not fall. And as the country has grown in greatness and in influence its capital city has become increasingly important. More and more it is being visited by those who come from every part of this country and the world. We owe it to them and to the generations yet to come to see that they shall find there a great, beautiful city—a city not made with hands only, but into which have been built the beauty and hopes and aspirations of America.

ADJUTANT GENERAL REYNOLDS HONORED BY XENIA TUESDAY

ed as chairman of the meeting. Mr. Rice also talked about the stability of government, lauded the National Guard and paid a tribute to General Reynolds' forty years of service with the National Guard and his record as a soldier.

Opening the speaking program, a brief tribute to the memory of Marshal Foch, who was buried Tuesday, was paid by the Rev. Father David Powers, who said he was one of the two outstanding characters produced by the great conflict, the World War, "England had its Haig; America has its Pershing, but the world had a Foch. Foch's characteristics predominated his life, his simplicity of manner, his humility, his undaunted courage and determination of will and his deep religious spirit," he said.

There was a galaxy of war heroes at the dinner, including John McClay, Columbus, O., Ohio department commander of the G. A. R.; Judge Charles Shawyer, Bucyrus, O., Ohio department commander of the United Spanish War Veterans, and R. G. Ingersoll, Warren, O., state department commander of the American Legion, all of whom gave talks.

McClay, who is now 80 years of age, shouldered a musket before he was 14 years old. He enlisted in the union army when he was 13 and because of his soldiering experiences all over the country said his friends in Columbus tell him that "he has a right to walk on High St." He declared that in a few years taps will be sounded and lights will be out for the last G. A. R. veteran but that the organization will be leaving behind it the United States as a monument which it successfully kept intact.

Judge Shawyer, in a brief talk, said that the O. S. and S. O. Home here is an institution "dear to our organization." "We have known your city through the Xenia Home. Illustrating your patriotic motive, you people in Xenia have demonstrated the proper spirit in co-operating for an Armory here."

Mr. Ingersoll, commander of the Legion, declared this organization of ex-service men has served an apprenticeship of ten years of its existence and that the organization hopes to be able to inherit the prestige of others that have laid the foundation for military associations in the United States. The present Legion membership in Ohio is 35,000.

He asserted that the Xenia O. S. and S. O. Home has a sacred spot in the child welfare program of the Legion in Ohio. "It is not the purpose of our organization to criticize the Home, except to offer constructive criticism. The Legion is proud of the Home and to have a part in the constructive work now going on there."

"Here centers our major child welfare work. We hope to build it up to its present day needs, but I am still proud of the institution as it now stands. It is a fit place for the children of ex-service men."

Brief talks were also delivered by Sheriff Ohmer Tate, Rep. R. L. Williamson, Captain O. H. Cornwell and Col. Charles V. Burton, superintendent of the Home.

Honor guests at the meeting introduced by Mr. Rice also included Lieut. Col. Wade Christy and Lieut. Col. Earl Port, members of Gen. Reynolds' staff, who accompanied him to Xenia; H. H. Cherry, representing the United Spanish War Veterans; Deputy Sheriff George Sudeen, representing Joseph P. Moody Post, No. 95, American Legion; J. Friedman, president of the Xenia Retail Merchants' Association; commissioned officers of Company L; members of City Commission; City Manager S. O. Hale, Common Pleas Judge R. L. Gowdy and County School Superintendent H. C. Aultman.

Covers were laid for nearly 100 people at the dinner, which was served by Jacob Kany. An orchestra from the O. S. and S. O. Home under the direction of Prof. H. E. Seall furnished music.

Gen. Reynolds and his two aides, motored to Xenia Tuesday afternoon from Cincinnati and were guests from 2 until 4 o'clock at the O. S. and S. O. Home, where they inspected the institution and viewed new buildings under construction. They were met there by a reception committee of Xenians, including H. L. Bazar, J. F. McLaughlin, D. W. Cherry, City Manager S. O. Hale, City Auditor T. H. Zell, J. D. Adair and Captain Cornwell.

Rep. Williamson, who also came to Xenia from Columbus Tuesday afternoon, joined the distinguished visitors in the official car and the party was escorted on an inspection trip over Xenia during which five available sites for an armory building here were viewed by the adjutant general.

Later at 5 p. m. they were joined by Col. Burton, who motored from Columbus with the three state commanders. The adjutant-general's salute of eleven guns was given upon arrival at the Home of the state officer and at 5 o'clock the cadet battalion gave a dress parade in his honor.

Mr. McClay remained at the Home overnight as the guest of Col. Burton.

Passed Up!

READ THIS FIRST:

Betty Brown, dancer, goes riding with a friend of her dancing career and has her leg dislocated in an accident. Andy Adair, who drives her, does not come to the hospital to see her, but George Harris, who disapproves of her dancing, pays her hospital bills, and makes her cashier in his restaurant. Later she has an operation which cures the limp which resulted from the accident. While working for George Harris she takes a business course. In her first position as a secretary she and her employer dance with glee over a contract secured; but his wife arrives on this scene and has her discharged.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XLVIII

A discouraged and weary Betty went back to the restaurant the morning after she had received her letter of recommendation from the kindly Mr. Smith. She was eating her breakfast when George Harris arrived. She motioned him to join her.

"I have lost my nice position, George!" she announced.

"What was the matter? I thought you were delightfully situated."

"I was, but something came up which made it impossible for Mr. Smith to keep me. Look what a nice letter of recommendation he gave me." She handed it across the table for him to read.

"That is wonderful," agreed George, diverted from his inquiry as to why she left. "You can have your position back if you like. I am always for you, Betty, you know. Our lives are linked for all ways, I believe."

"Yes, George, you are the kindest person in the world. But I would like to try once more. Let me just go on as I have, attending to the cash at dinner time. That will leave me the entire day to hunt another position. It should not be hard with this letter to recommend me."

"Just as you prefer," he said. Betty was glad when some minor matter took him away from the table and ended the conversation.

After breakfast she walked to a nearby park and sat down to think seriously over her affairs. She was much discouraged and almost ready to tell George Harris she would marry him whenever he wanted. She smiled in spite of her trouble; George had never proposed to her in so many words! But she felt she knew George and his way so well; he was just waiting for the opportunity. All he needed was a little encouragement.

On at least three occasions he had approached the subject. She had diverted him, knowing she could not refuse him, but wanting to put off the time as long as she could. George had certainly stood staunchly by on every occasion when she had needed a friend!

She imagined she could sense the workings of that slow, methodical mind. He was waiting for her to exhaust this desire for security, to work just as he had waited for her to see the folly of dancing. Perhaps he thought if she had experience with other people, she would be more able to appreciate him and his life.

The inevitableness of it made Betty impatient. She felt to some degree at fault for dancing in Mr. Smith's office, but justified herself, any other girl would have done the same thing under the circumstances. Mr. Smith had not thought she was wrong.

She determined to make good at the new work. She had pleased Mr. Smith; there were other nice men in business to whom she could make herself necessary. She arose to go to the corner, buy a paper and hunt another position.

The Help Wanted column showed only one advertisement which looked like a good prospect. It was for a stenographer and typist in an insurance office. As usual, it told applicants to call at nine o'clock.

At the office it was evident they were experienced employees. As soon as she entered she was handed a blank to fill out. It seemed to Betty, any other girl would have done the same thing under the circumstances. Mr. Smith had not thought she was wrong.

Everything was so systematized that stenographers came and went every day; there was little, if any, prospect of advancement.

TEXAS HOODLUMS
TAKEN TO CHURCH

DALLAS, Tex., March 27.—The sheriff's office received a "riot" call from Kleburg, a small town near Dallas.
"There's a gang of hoodlums here again, just like every Sunday night," said the call.
Two county deputies went to investigate and found twenty-five men and boys engaged in various forms of devilry.
"Boys," said one of the deputies, "you're going to be made to see the light. You're going to church for once in your lives."
The deputies then rounded up the "rioters" and herded them into a nearby church where services were being held. The peace disturbers all sang and listened attentively to the sermon as though they enjoyed it.
"It did them a heap more good than jail," the deputies said.

"KONJOLA-THAT'S MY ADVISE TO ALL WHO SUFFER"

Happy Lady Tells How New Medicine Put A Quick End To Liver Trouble And Rheumatism.

"I marvel at the powers of this new Konjola," said Mrs. R. Dunbar, Route No. 2, Canton, O. "I find it difficult to believe that two years of suffering from rheumatism has been so quickly and completely ended. For two years I had rheumatic pains all over me, and at times was scarcely able to walk across a room. Then, too, my liver was sluggish and I had frequent dizzy spells. My system was full of impurities, and weakened my general condition.

"A friend suggested that I try Konjola, and put it to the test. How this wonderful medicine went to the very source of my troubles was simply astounding. My improvement was immediate, and day by day I became better and stronger. Today, the rheumatic pains and dizzy spells have vanished, and I can walk around the house all day. Konjola did more than I was told it would do, and I am eager to have this statement made public, as I consider it a duty to tell all the victims of rheumatism of my experience."

Konjola is different from any other known remedy in this section. It contains 22 juices extracted from natural plants, which invigorate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels to a more healthy action. The effect of Konjola on the entire system brings amazing relief in cases of suffering that has been going on for years. At the same time, many weak and run-down systems have been restored to a new state of health thru this compound. Such a vast number of men and women in this city have told of their experience with this new medical product, until now, Konjola is the most highly indorsed medicine that is known in this vicinity.
Konjola is sold in Xenia at the Gallaher Drug Store, and by all the best druggists throughout this entire section.

BELIEVE ARMORY ASSURED FOR
XENIA; FIVE SITES INSPECTED

Coincident with the celebration of Tuesday as "Armory Day" in Xenia construction of a National Guard Armory in this city to cost $50,000 was included in a two-year armory building program drafted in the joint legislative finance committee exactly at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday.

This committee approved bills authorizing four armories and rejected four others.

Those recommended for passage provide for armories in Xenia, Piqua, Mt. Vernon and Alliance.

Those rejected were for armories in Barborton, Dayton, Fremont and Springfield.

The measure providing for the Xenia armory originated in a special bill introduced in the house by Rep. R. D. Williamson, Greene County, and was favorably reported.

Action on requests of armories for Dayton, Springfield, Fremont and Barborton was postponed until the next session of the general assembly, the committee pointing out that there was no immediate need for armories in the cities involved.

Consequently, an armory for Xenia is no longer a dream but will be a reality within the next year inasmuch as the appropriation to finance its construction will be made available any time after July 1, according to Rep. Williamson, who was in Xenia Tuesday.

Brig. Gen. Arthur W. Reynolds, adjutant-general of Ohio, inspected five available sites here Tuesday in an effort to determine which would be most suitable for erection of an armory building in Xenia.

Although he withheld official recommendation of any particular site, he announced that at least three of the locations he had viewed are splendid sites for the structure. He announced that within the next twenty-four or forty-eight hours he would make known which site under consideration he believes to be best suited for the armory. It is also possible he may suggest three sites in order of preference and leave the actual choice of a site to Xenia.

However, an armory building for Xenia is assured, he said, as he will act favorably on one or more of the sites he inspected.

Although the state will finance erection of the building and maintain it in the future, it will be necessary for Xenians to purchase a location and deed it over to the state.

Proposed sites for the building which will be available for purchase include vacant property in the rear

PET CAT SAVES TWO
PORT WAYNE, Ind., March 27.—The agonized whining of their pet cat saved Harold Burkas and John Brown from coal gas asphyxiation here. A defective gas heater had rendered the men almost unconscious. They were aroused by the whines and agonized whinnings of the animal and managed to reach a door.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

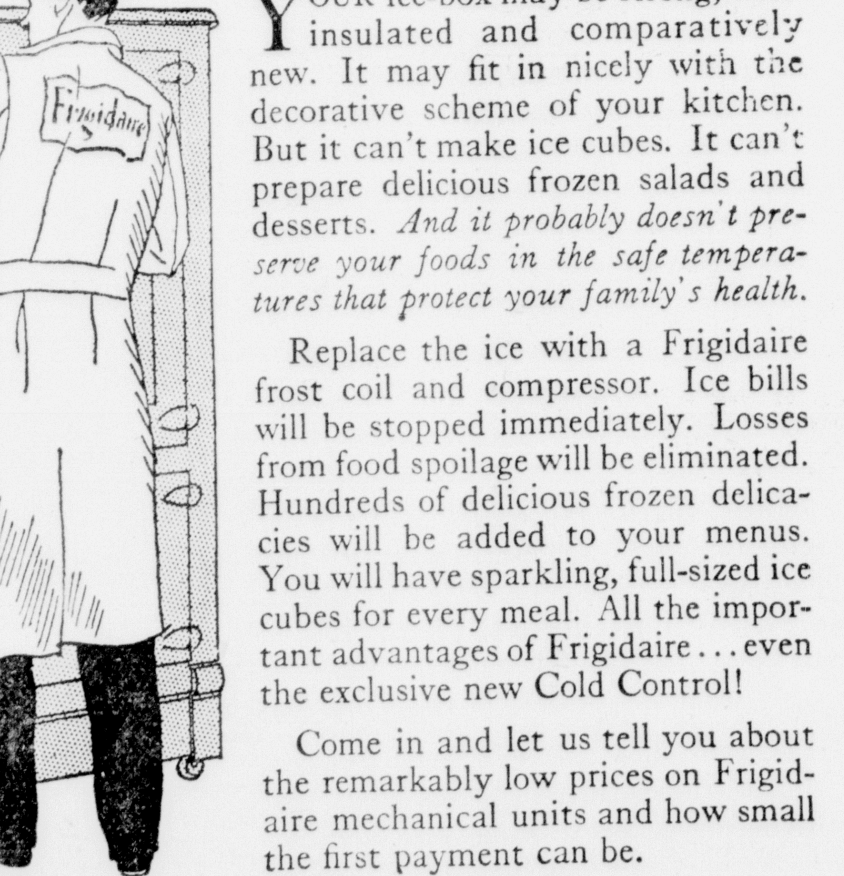

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 50c and 60c.

According to Rep. Williamson the action of the joint legislative finance committee in reporting favorably on the Xenia armory ends the matter. The appropriation has already been approved by both branches of the state legislature and does not need the approval of Governor Cooper.

Rep. Williamson, present member and former chairman of the house finance committee, took an active interest in obtaining the armory for Xenia and Xenians interested in the project say that to him belongs the major share of credit for bringing the matter to a successful conclusion.

A favorable impression was also created at the outset when a large delegation of Xenians personally visited the finance committee a few weeks ago to argue in behalf of erection of an armory in this city.

TEXAS HOODLUMS TAKEN TO CHURCH

DALLAS, Tex., March 27.—The sheriff's office received a "riot" call from Kleburg, a small town near Dallas.

"There's a gang of hoodlums here again, just like every Sunday night," said the call.

Two county deputies went to investigate and found twenty-five men and boys engaged in various forms of devilry.

"Boys," said one of the deputies, "you're going to be made to see the light. You're going to church for once in your lives."

The deputies then rounded up the "rioters" and herded them into a nearby church where services were being held. The peace disturbers all sang and listened attentively to the sermon as though they enjoyed it.

"It did them a heap more good than jail," the deputies said.

"KONJOLA-THAT'S MY ADVISE TO ALL WHO SUFFER"

Happy Lady Tells How New Medicine Put A Quick End To Liver Trouble And Rheumatism.

MRS. R. DUNBAR

rheumatic pains all over me, and at times was scarcely able to walk across a room. Then, too, my liver was sluggish and I had frequent dizzy spells. My system was full of impurities, and weakened my general condition.

"A friend suggested that I try Konjola and put it to the test. How this wonderful medicine went to the very source of my trouble was simply astounding. My improvement was immediate, and day by day I became better and stronger. Today, the rheumatic pains and dizzy spells have vanished, and I can walk around the house all day. Konjola did more than I was told it would do, and I am eager to have this statement made public, as I consider it a duty to tell all the victims of rheumatism of my experience."

Konjola is different from any other known remedy in this section. It contains 22 juices extracted from natural plants, which invigorate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels to a more healthy action. The effect of Konjola on the entire system brings amazing relief in cases of suffering that has been going on for years. At the same time, many weak and run-down systems have been restored to a new state of health thru this compound. Such a vast number of men and women in this city have told of their experience with this new medical product, until now, Konjola is the most highly indorsed medicine that is known in this vicinity.

Konjola is sold in Xenia at the Gallaher Drug Store, and by all the best druggists throughout this entire section. —Adv.

The P. T. A. sponsored a home talent play, "Home Acres," that was given in the opera house to a capacity house, Wednesday evening. The play was directed by Mr. Robert Moorman and was a pronounced success. Included in the cast were Misses W. S. Weimer, Norval Sams, and Ray Chelwa. Misses Louise Skyles and Leah Glass, Messrs. W. S. Weimer, Norval Sams, Floyd Badgley, Harry Pickering and Prof. R. E. Correll. Between scenes an amusing skit was given by Mrs. Ralph Glass and Mrs. Will Sutton. Readings by little Miss Eloise Rittenour and Louise Reeder, piano solo, Miss Eleanor Correll and violin numbers by Miss Leontine Jenks, accompanied on the piano by Miss Leah Glass, added much to the evening's entertainment.

A picture painted by Mr. Henry C. Fenker is attracting considerable attention in Chicago. It is on exhibit during the Lenten season, at Christ's Lutheran Church of the Ascension. It depicts Resurrection morning at the tomb. Christ in the person of the gardener, and the women bringing spices and ointments, the road to Jerusalem and the city in the distance. The canvas is 20x14 feet. The picture was first shown in Jamestown three years ago at the Friends Church at Easter time, many viewing it from the surrounding towns. It is considered a remarkable painting.

Friends here have received invitations to the wedding of Mr. Harold Mossman to Miss Mary Watson, which will take place Easter Sunday at the Simpson M. E. Church, Ft. Wayne, Ind. Mr. Mossman is well known in Jamestown, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mossman of near Jamestown.

Miss Minnie Record, a former Jamestown girl, now of Dayton, will be united in marriage to Mr. Thurman Payne, Dayton, at the home of the bridegroom, Saturday March 30. Miss Record is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Binegar, who will attend the wedding.

The Ladies Aid of the Friends Church was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gustafson, south of town. Additional hostesses were Mesdames Thurman Tidd, Cecil Goodbar, and Charles Fields. After routine business, a delicious refreshment course was served by the hostesses during the social hour.

Mrs. Rollo Chitty (Opal Shepley) a recent bride was "showered" at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shepley, Charleston Pike, Wednesday afternoon. The hostesses for the afternoon were Miss Esther De Weese, Mesdames A. F. Roush, F. O. Lillich, Leroy Spahr and Walter Shepley. An appetizing luncheon was served by the hostesses.

Miss Frances Garringer, a bride of the near future, was the recipient of many useful and lovely gifts, at a shower, Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Blanche Garringer, with Mesdames Ira and Paul Garringer hostesses. Dainty refreshments were served.

Inspection of Pythian Sisters Temple was held Tuesday evening at the K. of P. Hall, Mrs. Ida Dreher of Dayton acting as inspection officer. After the business session, a salad course was served. Visitors were present from South Solon and Jeffersonville.

The regular meeting of the Jamestown Grange was held Thursday evening. An interesting program was presented by the lecturer, Miss Nelle Mossman. The responses to roll call were "My Favorite Song." The program closed with a playlet, "An Irish Alibi."

A community choir of fifty voices, under the direction of Mr. R. G. George will present the cantata "The Resurrection Song," Sabbath, March 31st, at 2:30 p. m. at the M. E. Church and also at 8 p. m. Mrs. C. T. Walker will accompany with the pipe organ.

BELIEVE ARMORY ASSURED FOR XENIA; FIVE SITES INSPECTED

Coinciding with the celebration of Tuesday as "Armory Day" in Xenia construction of a National Guard Armory in this city to cost $50,000 was included in a two-year armory building program drafted in the joint legislative finance committee exactly at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday.

This committee approved bills authorizing four armories and rejected four others. Those recommended for passage provide for armories in Xenia, Piqua, Mt. Vernon and Alliance.

Those rejected were for armories in Barboursville, Dayton, Fremont and Springfield. The measure providing for the Xenia armory originated in a special bill introduced in the house by Rep. R. D. Williamson, Greene County, and was favorably reported.

Action on requests of armories for Dayton, Springfield, Fremont and Barboursville was postponed until the next session of the general assembly, the committee pointing out that there was no immediate need for armories in the cities involved.

Consequently, an armory for Xenia is no longer a dream but will be a reality within the next year inasmuch as the appropriation to finance its construction will be made available any time after July 1, according to Rep. Williamson, who was in Xenia Tuesday.

Brig. Gen. Arthur W. Reynolds, adjutant-general of Ohio, inspected five available sites here Tuesday in an effort to determine which would be most suitable for erection of an armory building in Xenia.

Although he withheld official recommendation of any particular site, he announced that at least three of the locations he had viewed are splendid sites for the structure. He announced that within the next twenty-four or forty-eight hours he would make known which site under consideration he believes to be best suited for the armory. It is also possible he may suggest three sites in order of preference and leave the actual choice of a site to Xenia.

However, an armory building for Xenia is assured, he said, as he will act favorably on one or more of the sites he inspected.

Although the state will finance erection of the building and maintain it in the future, it will be necessary for Xenians to purchase a location and deed it over to the state.

Proposed sites for the building which will be available for purchase include vacant property in the rear of the Greene County District Library; the George Eckler property on E. Main St.; the old Seminary property on W. Third St.; the D. E. Croy property on W. Second St.; and the property of Dr. A. C. Messenger at Market and King Sts.

Adjutant-General Reynolds, however, desires that the site chosen for the building be at least 150 feet in depth and have a frontage of at least 100 feet.

The type of building to be constructed will be similar to those which have been erected in past years in small cities the size of Xenia, but would be modern and well equipped in every way.

According to Rep. Williamson the action of the joint legislative finance committee in reporting favorably on the Xenia armory ends the matter. The appropriation has already been approved by both branches of the state legislature and does not need the approval of Governor Cooper.

Rep. Williamson, present member and former chairman of the house finance committee, took an active interest in obtaining the armory for Xenia and Xenians interested in the project say that to him belongs the major share of credit for bringing the matter to a successful conclusion. A favorable impression was also created at the outset when a large delegation of Xenians personally visited the finance committee a few weeks ago to argue in behalf of erection of an armory in this city.

For Delicious Breakfasts

"E" BRAND PANCAKES!

"E" BRAND SYRUP

You'll want to pour a lot of this clear, sweet, delicate syrup over that plate of piping hot cakes! It's just delicious. If you like a dark cane syrup with your pancakes ask your grocer for MERRITT BRAND.

"These cakes are perfect! Hundreds of housekeepers have heard this kind of delighted exclamations when they have served a breakfast of light, savory, golden brown 'E' BRAND PANCAKES. Because the flour is ready mixed in absolutely correct proportions the results are always the same—cakes that are triumphs of tenderness and tempting flavor. Just add water to the flour according to directions on the box—cook on a HOT griddle, and in less than five minutes you can have a breakfast that is not only fit for a king in its satisfying goodness but that furnishes 18 vital body building elements. Think what that means to your busy husband and active children.

AND ALSO—

—because it is absolutely pure with no unwholesome "filler" you can let everyone eat all they want of cakes made of this flour without any fear of indigestion.

If you have a good ice-box make it a Frigidaire . . .

YOUR ice-box may be strong, well-insulated and comparatively new. It may fit in nicely with the decorative scheme of your kitchen. But it can't make ice cubes. It can't prepare delicious frozen salads and desserts. And it probably doesn't preserve your foods in the safe temperatures that protect your family's health.

Replace the ice with a Frigidaire frost coil and compressor. Ice bills will be stopped immediately. Losses from food spoilage will be eliminated. Hundreds of delicious frozen delicacies will be added to your menus. You will have sparkling, full-sized ice cubes for every meal. All the important advantages of Frigidaire . . . even the exclusive new Cold Control!

Come in and let us tell you about the remarkably low prices on Frigidaire mechanical units and how small the first payment can be.
